LEAH COPELAND

PLOT SUMMARY

He said there was still time for me to escape the supernatural world. What he didn't know was it had already claimed me.

All 18-year-old Sydney wants is to be a professional ballerina, but the night before a life-changing audition, she stumbles into a supernatural war. The only one who will save her is 20-year-old Aiden, the future Alpha of the Shadow Grove wolf pack. But when his rescue attempt backfires, she witnesses things she never should have seen, throwing her into the grasp of his world.

As the danger grows, can Sydney stay alive long enough for Aiden to help her find a way out? Or are their paths more tangled than either of them know?

About the Author...

Leah is from Virginia, where she resides with her hunky hubby and two daughters - one human, one fur-child. By day she conquers tantrums and milk-spills, and by night she conquers the keyboard.

As a writer of YA Urban Fantasy and Paranormal Romance, she loves focusing on how her characters overcome their seemingly impossible situations, with a lot of swoon on the side.

Her hobbies are beach vacations, reading (obviously), and jamming out to anything with a good beat.
